Bermudez, winner of the Riverside Comm- fair queen contest, will be crowned at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow by Mayor E. V. Dales.

5-Day Fair on Tap Tomorrow

Riverside Community Fair will begin a five-day run at 6 p.m. tomorrow with Linda Bermudez reigning as queen of the Knights of Columbus sponsored event.

Linda, candidate of the Latin American Club was declared winner of the six-weeks-long queen contest last night as she made a whirlwind finish to top the field of 10 contestants.

The pretty brunette held top place in the contest during the final two weeks of the contest, piling up a plurality of votes over runnersup Susan Ann Sweeney and Dorothy Mae Elliott.

Queen Linda is scheduled to be crowned at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow by Mayor E. V. Dales during opening night festivities at the fair.

The queen is a native Californian and she will have her 17th birthday on Oct. 6 during her reign. She is a student at Riverside Polytechnic High School. Her future plans include going on to college.

Workmen at the community fair site today were busy putting up the big exhibit tent that also will house the Dancing Waters show.

General Chairman Jack Kovely said that the entire Progress on Parade production is slated to be in readiness for the grand opening.

Location of the fair is adjacent to Riverside Plaza shopping center. It will be on the north side of Merrill avenue between Magnolia avenue and Riverside avenue.

Coperating civic and fraternal organizations will share in fair profits through operation of concession booths.

The groups are Uptown Optimist Club, Uptown Kiwanis
